Dear Rising Juniors,

Next year, you will be a junior at North Shore Hebrew Academy High School. It is our hope that you have developed habits that include doing your assigned homework in all of your classes. In your English classes, the assigned work next year will consist of doing a great deal of reading. In class, you will be expected to use your experience of reading the assigned literature in order to participate in the class activities. These activities may be discussions, group work, vocabulary study, presentations, quizzes or worksheets. A careful reading of all assigned texts is the first step to achievement in your English classes. In eleventh grade, the literature we assign will focus on various aspects of social justice.

Your first assignment is to read during the summer break the materials listed below. You are required to buy the texts and bring them to school on the first day of class and on other days according to the instructions given to you by your eleventh grade English teacher. Here is the information you need about the required readings:

Fahrenheit 451 (Bradbury) 9781451673265 On Tyranny (Snyder) 9780804190114

As you read, consider what specific issue in social justice the texts are focusing on. What is your position on the issue?

Have a nice summer!

Mrs. Susan Newborn,
Chair of the English Department
